Elections -2018

Throughout the year, our little Santa Marians are enthralled by various activities, such as Food stall, exhibitions, bonding with the tree and so on.

However as the year draws to a close "Animal Elections "has become the most awaited event over the last few years.

This year too, children experienced all the various stages of elections.

In total six animals were nominated for the coveted "Favorite Animal of the year"

Laadli-the goat (school kibeti )

Rabbit – sabka pyara

Rooster –our wakeup call
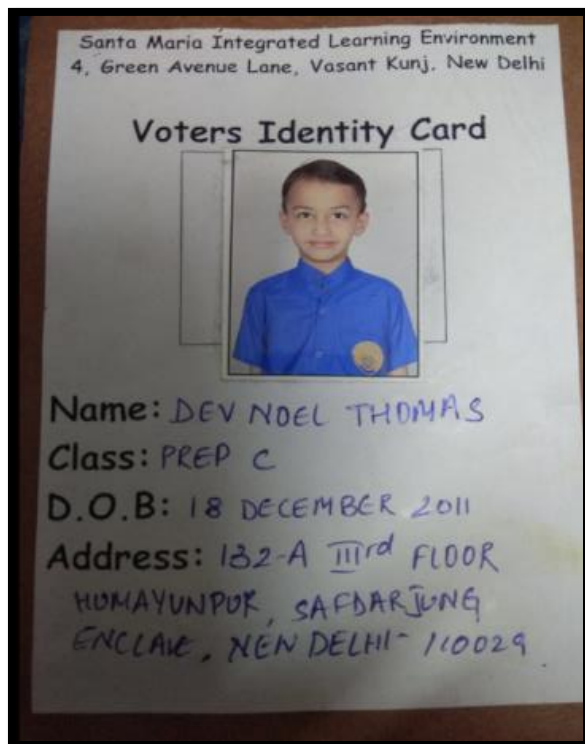

Jeet-our superhero

Goose-very soft and delicate

And our very smart and strong Turkey

The campaigning started on the 13th February 2018.As the famous saying goes "What a wonderful sight when everyone is treated right ".All the candidates got a fair chance to campaign.

Elaborate preparations were made for a smooth and fair election.

Voter's I card were issued to each and every child of the school, with their date of birth, photograph and other details.

A ballot paper was prepared with the candidate's pictures and the corresponding sound. Children started warming up to the idea of electing their favorite animal.

During the campaigning children voiced their opinions and the reasons for choosing them. Laksh Bagga of Prep c mentioned " I will vote for rooster because hecan talkto the sun and tell us that it is morning ".For some rabbit was a better option "kyonkivobahut  cute hai ".For Jianna of KG A ,Turkey was a better choice because " vobahut strong aur smart hai".

On the day of the final voting that is 6th March 2018, the excitement was palpable, with children discussing amongst each other their respective choices.

Each child carried his voter's I card reached the polling booth to cast his vote.

The polling process was managed efficiently by our gracious parent volunteers.

Once the voted ended and the counting started the entire school was full of excitement. We all gathered in the main ground for the results.

And finally the wait for the Favorite animal ended by announcing the winner and the winner for the year 2018 is Jeet our superhero . Children shared their reflections of the election process.

The final tally was:

Jeet-60 votes

Rabbit -56

Rooster-48

Laadli-37

Turkey-35

Goose-19

A lot of cheer and happiness all around…!!!!!

Long live the winner "Jeet our Super hero… "!!!
